

This course was one of my favorite courses offered at Florida State University.

With that being said, the only thing I would recommend for improvement would be:

- More hands on experience with Amazon AWS Ec2
- More machine learning
- More hands on experience with Angular and NodeJS
- More experience with Klustering and more help with it as well
- Project could be group project

Other than that, everything else is fine and should stay the same